the had. Spots were marked off 25 points, middling to 15.50, with sales 2,000 bales, including 2,000 American. Receipts were only 2,000 bales, including 1,700 American.

At the opening of this side changes were made and a fairly good demand prevailed, which sent prices up slightly from the initial level. October started at 32.75. There was support on expectation of a bullish weekly weather summary, but this proved abortive as a factor and traders turned their attention to other things. The list did not change much for a time, but bearishly inclined traders grew bolder later and depressed the list until October touched 32.50 and the list in proportion. Some recovery followed, but it was not important up to a short while before the close.

In the spot department business continued slack, but holders are not disposed to weaken any. Exports are running moderate, but they are expected to expand materially during the present month. Lower sterling today did not help the cotton situation, which is still full of confidence in the possibility of good demand for shipment abroad.

Future closed 79 to 85 points off, tone barely steady. Spots were raised 25 points, middling to 32.50, with sales 2,129 bales. Liverpool is due to come 41 to 45 points lower.

The local market quotations remained the same, with sales reported 300 bales.

Memphis cotton closed steady and unchanged. Middling, 32.75. Sales 300 bales.

GRAIN MARKETS

Corn and Oats Reach New High Levels for Season Helped by Weather.

CHICAGO, July 2.—Both corn and oats today touched the highest prices yet this season, with the initial decline of rain and continued record-breaking upturn in the hog market, formed the bullish factors. Opening prices, which ranged from 32 to 34 cents higher, with September 31.75 to 31.80 and December 31.85 to 31.90, were followed by additional gains.

Improved shipping demand from the East led subsequently to a further advance. Besides, rural offerings were light. The market closed buoyant, 4 1/2 to 5 cents higher, with September 31.85 to 31.90 and December 31.90 to 32.00. Oats kept on the ascent with corn. After opening at 24.50 to 24.75, they closed September at 25.00 to 25.25, the market went still higher.

Provisions were hoisted by influence of hogs and grain.
